

ANZPA CONFERENCE 2009

He tangata, he tangata, he tangata    It is people, it is people, it is people

July 2008

Dear ANZPA members,

Planning for our next conference is progressing well. The theme

He tangata, he tangata, he tangata
It is people, it is people, it is people

A conference for social atom repair in ourselves and social repair in our communities

emerged from the following Maori proverb

*Hutia te rito o te harakeke
Kei hea? Te komako e ko
Ki mai ki ahau.
He aha te mea nui o tenei ao?
He tangata, he tangata, he tangata.*

If the centre of the flax is pulled out,
There will be no place for the bellbird to sing;
You ask me, what is the most important thing in the world?
It is people, it is people, it is people.

We ask you now to reflect on these words, phrases and images, to find your response to and expression of this call for healing in our communities and ourselves. Talk with your colleagues about what will build the life of our Association, the practice of psychodrama in all its forms, and our ability to live well in the world. After you have reflected, we invite you to offer a workshop, a paper or a demonstration that relates to this theme.

Please send your proposal to the programme committee by emailing the information on the following page to sandra.turner@xtra.co.nz or mail the completed form to Sandra Turner, 154 Gladstone Road, Dalmore, Dunedin, New Zealand. The deadline for submissions is the 31st August.

We look forward to your responses,

Sandra Turner, Sara Crane, Joc Phiskie, Judy Broom and Alex Kennedy
